LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on the 26th April, 1968:—

BILL No. 35 OF 1968

A Bill to provide for the separation of judicial and executive functions in Union territories.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Union Territories (Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, 1968. Short title, extent and commencement.
- 5 (2) It extends to all Union territories except the Union territory of Chandigarh.
- (3) It shall come into force in a Union territory to which it extends on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in respect thereof.
- 10 Provided that different dates may be appointed for different areas in a Union territory and any reference to the commencement of this Act in relation to a Union territory or an area therein shall mean the date on which it comes into force in that Union territory or area.

Definition.

2. In sections 3 to 9, "Union territory" means any Union territory other than the Union territory of Chandigarh.

Amendments to Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

3. For the purpose of separation of judicial and executive functions, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, in its application to a Union territory, be amended in the manner and to the extent specified in the Schedule.

5 of 1898.

Amendments not to render invalid notifications, etc., before commencement of Act.

4. The provisions of this Act which amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, so as to alter the manner in which, the authority ¹⁰ 5 of 1898. by which, or the law under or in accordance with which, any powers are exercisable, shall not render invalid any notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation duly made or issued or anything duly done before the commencement of this Act, and any such notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-¹⁵ law, rule or regulation or thing may be revoked, varied or undone in the like manner, to the like extent and in the like circumstances, as if it had been duly made, issued or done after the commencement of this Act by the competent authority and in accordance with the ²⁰ provisions then applicable to such case.

Functions exercisable by Judicial and Executive Magistrates.

5. Where under any law the functions exercisable by a Magistrate relate to matters which involve the appreciation or sifting of evidence or the formulation of any decision which exposes any person to any punishment, or penalty, or detention in custody pending ²⁵ investigation, inquiry or trial or would have the effect of sending him for trial before any court, such functions shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, be exercisable by a Judicial Magistrate; and where such functions relate to matters which are administrative or executive in nature, such as the grant of a licence, the suspension ³⁰ or cancellation of a licence, sanctioning a prosecution, or withdrawing from a prosecution, they shall, subject as aforesaid, be exercisable by an Executive Magistrate.

5 of 1898.

Repeal of laws in transferred areas in Himachal Pradesh.

6. On the commencement of this Act in the transferred areas in the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh, the Punjab Separation of ³⁵ Punjab Act 25 of 1964. ^{1964.} Judicial and Executive Functions Act, 1964, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as in force immediately before such commencement in the said areas shall stand repealed except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such repeal under the said Punjab Act or under the provisions of the laws amended by the said Punjab ⁴⁰ Act and section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply upon ^{10 of 1897.}

such repeal as if such repeal were a repeal of an enactment by a Central Act; and on such commencement, the said Code as amended by this Act shall extend to, and come into force in, the said areas and the provisions of the laws (other than the said Code) amended by the said Punjab Act shall have effect in the said areas as if such provisions had not been amended by the said Punjab Act.

Explanation.—In this section, “transferred areas” means the territories added to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh by sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, except the territories comprised in the districts of Lahaul and Spiti.

31 of 1966. 7. (1) Save as provided in this section, nothing in this Act shall Saving. be deemed to affect—

15 (a) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything done or suffered to be done before the commencement of this Act;

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred before such commencement;

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any act before such commencement;

20 (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or 25 punishment may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act.

30 5 of 1898. (2) All legal proceedings pending before a Magistrate or Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, if such Magistrate or Court ceases to have jurisdiction in respect of such proceedings under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, stand on such commencement transferred to the Magistrate or Court having jurisdiction under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by 35 this Act and shall be heard and disposed of by such Magistrate or Court and such Magistrate or Court shall have all the powers and jurisdiction in respect thereof as if they had been originally instituted before such Magistrate or in such Court, including the power of the succeeding Magistrate under section 350 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Power to remove difficulties.

8. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government, in consultation with the High Court having jurisdiction in relation to the Union territory concerned, may, by order, do anything (including the specification of the appropriate Magistrate, whether Judicial or Executive, having jurisdiction under any law) not inconsistent with such provisions for the purpose of removing the difficulty: 5

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of three years from the commencement of this Act.

Explanation.—In this section, “High Court” shall have the same meaning as in clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

5 of 1898.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

Power of Legislative Assembly of Union territory to amend this Act.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 21 of the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963, the Legislative Assembly of a Union territory may by law amend this Act in its application to that Union territory. 15 20 of 1963.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to separate the judiciary from the executive in the matter of administration of criminal law in all Union territories except Chandigarh where the Punjab Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions Act, 1964, is already in force, and has been brought forward in compliance with the directive principles of State policy embodied in article 50 of the Constitution. The object is sought to be achieved by amendment of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (vide clause 3 and the Schedule) by providing for the classification of the magistracy into Judicial and Executive Magistrates and for the appointment of members of the judiciary as Judicial Magistrates with the approval of the High Court. The Bill seeks to make changes in the various provisions of the Code with a view to giving effect to this classification and contains the necessary transitional and saving provisions. The Bill also sets out the respective cases other than those specifically covered by the proposed amendments to the Code, in which functions shall be exercisable under any law by Judicial and Executive Magistrates. Provision has been made in the Bill for the repeal of certain laws in force in areas transferred to Himachal Pradesh from Punjab so as to facilitate the enforcement of the scheme of the Bill in such areas. Power has also been taken for the removal of difficulties, if any, in giving effect to the provisions of the Bill after it becomes an Act.

Under section 21 of the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963, the Legislative Assembly of a Union territory cannot amend any law enacted by Parliament after the commencement of that Act though the subject matter of the law may be within the legislative competence of the Assembly. Clause 9 of the Bill seeks to confer on the Legislative Assembly of a Union territory the power to amend this law in its application to the Union territory if it is considered necessary to do so.

NEW DELHI;

Y. B. CHAVAN.

The 14th March, 1968.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. F. 13/1/67-UTL, dated the 22nd March, 1968 from Shri Y. B. Chavan, Minister of Home Affairs to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President having been informed of the subject matter of the Bill to provide for the separation of judicial and executive functions in Union territories, recommends, under clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution, the consideration of the said Bill by the Lok Sabha.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Section 12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as proposed to be amended by clause 3 of the Bill read with paragraph 5 of the Schedule, seeks to provide for the appointment of Executive Magistrates and for conferment of powers of any class of Judicial Magistrates on a person who is a Civil Judge or a member of the judicial service of a Union territory or a group of such territories. It also provides that during the first three years, persons who are members of a civil service in any State or Union territory and are or have been exercising the powers of a Magistrate in such territory or State, may be appointed as Judicial Magistrates.

Section 14 of the Code, as proposed to be amended by clause 3 read with paragraph 7 of the Schedule, makes provision for appointment of Special Executive Magistrates.

The scheme of the Bill, in effect initially involves the classification of the existing Magistrates in the Union territories where such officers are functioning, as Executive Magistrates and Judicial Magistrates. In certain cases Civil Judges will be vested with the powers of Judicial Magistrates. No additional expenditure would be involved in such cases, e.g., the Union territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Goa, Daman and Diu. In the Union territories of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands and the hill areas of Manipur, separate Civil Judges will be appointed. They will also be vested with the powers of Judicial Magistrates. These appointments will involve extra expenditure. In the Union territories of Delhi, Himachal Pradesh, Pondicherry and Tripura, more Magistrates will have to be appointed. Necessary staff will also have to be appointed. There will be additional expenditure in this connection. Some non-recurring expenditure will also be incurred for the construction of buildings for the courts, residential accommodation for the new Civil Judges and Magistrates and the court staff, and for the purchase of law books, furniture, etc., for the courts. The additional expenditure in the case of the various Union territories, if the Bill is enacted and brought into force in the Union territories, is estimated to be as follows:—

Union territory	Non-recurring expenditure	Recurring expenditure per annum
(in lakhs of rupees)
A. To be met from the Consolidated Fund of India :
Andaman and Nicobar Islands	5.27	0.85
Delhi	0.95	6.33
Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands.	0.05	0.40
	6.27	7.58
B. To be met from the Consolidated Funds of Union territories :
Himachal Pradesh	0.60	2.97
Manipur	0.35	1.71
Pondicherry	0.07
Tripura	0.06	0.42
	1.01	5.17

BILL No. 16 OF 1968

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1968. Short title and commencement.
- 5 (2) It shall come into force at once.
2. In article 217 of the Constitution, in clause (1), for the words and figure "Every Judge of a High Court shall be appointed by the President by warrant under his hand and seal after consultation with the Chief Justice of India, the Governor of the State, and, in the case of appointment of a Judge other than the Chief Justice, the Chief Justice of the High Court, and shall hold office, in the case of an additional or acting Judge, as provided in article 224, and in any other case, until he attains the age of sixty-two years;" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Every Judge of a High Court shall be appointed by the President by warrant under his hand and seal with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of India and, in the case of appointment of a Judge other than the Chief Justice of the High Court, on the recommendation of Chief Justice of the High Court, and shall hold office, in the case of an additional or acting Judge, as provided in article 224, and in any other case, until he attains ⁵ ₁₀ the age of sixty-two years.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Article 217 of the Constitution, as framed at present, encourages canvassing in the matter of appointment of High Court Judges. In the opinion of the Law Commission also, the present selections of the High Court Judges are unsatisfactory and that they are induced by executive influence. These selections appear to have been made out of consideration of political expediency or regional or communal sentiments. The prevalence of canvassing for Judgeships is a distressing development. It is also on record that some of the persons appointed have not been persons recommended by the Chief Justice of the High Courts. In actual practice, there have been rival recommendations of the Chief Justice and Chief Minister and the persons recommended by the Chief Minister were selected in preference to the panel recommended by the Chief Justice. This procedure places the Chief Justice in an extremely awkward position.

Having regard to the present trends and experience it is essential that the position of the Chief Justice should be strengthened. Instead of a mere consultation with the Chief Justice, we should have a Constitutional provision that appointment of Judges would be made exclusively on the recommendation of the Chief Justice. This provision would eliminate the executive influence in the matter of appointment of High Court Judges in future and thereby restore and increase the confidence of people in the integrity and independence of our judiciary.

Hence this Bill.

BILL No. 38 OF 1968

A Bill to provide for participation of employees in the management of industrial or commercial undertakings in which they work and for other matters incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER IPRELIMINARY

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Labour (Participation in Management) Act, 1968.
(2) It extends to the whole of India.
(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Definitions.

(a) "concern" means and includes a trade, industry, business or undertaking by whatever name known or any distinct unit of the same.

5 (b) "employee" means a person working under an employer for the purpose of the employer's trade, business or undertaking, but shall not include—

(i) members of the supervisory or managerial staff; and

10 (ii) persons who have worked as aforesaid for less than 240 days in a calendar year preceding the year in which the question arises:

Provided that for the purpose of computing the said 240 days, paid holidays, weekly off-days, period of lay-off, period of leave sanctioned, any period of suspension and any period of leave the nature of which is in dispute before any competent authority at the time shall be included in the number of days worked.

20 (c) "employer" means a person or a body of persons by whatever name known, engaged in any trade, business or undertaking employing at least 20 persons excluding the supervisory or managerial staff, whether for profit or not, and includes a joint family, partnership, corporation, local authority and the Union and the State Governments:

25 Provided that it shall not include a local authority in its administrative capacity, the State and the Union Governments in exercise of their administrative, legislative and judicial functions.

30 (d) "Head of the concern" means the authority empowered to appoint and remove employees and to administer the day-to-day affairs of the concern.

(2) Expressions not defined in this Act shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Companies Act, 1956 and the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as the case may be.

CHAPTER II

THE ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

3. (1) Notwithstanding any law, rule, practice, agreement, custom or usage to the contrary, there shall be an Administrative Body for every concern or for a distinct unit of a concern consisting of: 5

- (a) as nearly as possible 2 per cent. of the employees working under the concern, not being less than 2 or more than 10 in any case, representing the employees; and
- (b) an equal number of managerial or supervisory staff nominated by the Head of the concern, including himself, 10 representing the employer.

(2) At least 30 days before the commencement of the financial year following the date on which the Act comes into force and thereafter at least 30 days before the commencement of every alternate financial year, the Head of the concern shall notify the total number 15 and the names of employees working and the names of the representatives of the employer nominated to serve on the Administrative Body, and call upon the employees by notice to choose their representatives. Such notice shall be prominently displayed on the notice boards of the concern, and shall be sent by registered post to the 20 recognised union or unions, as the case may be, of employees working in the concern.

(3) Within a week after the notification under sub-section (2), the employees may prefer objections to the number and list of employees notified by the Head of the concern, and such objections shall 25 be disposed of by the Head of the concern within three days thereafter and he shall record his decision in writing.

(4) Within three days after the last date for disposal of objections under sub-section (3), the Head of the concern shall by notification fix a date not being earlier than 7 days and later than 10 days from 30 the date of notification for choosing the representatives of the employees. This notice shall be published in the same manner as laid down in sub-section (2).

(5) On the date so appointed under sub-section (4) the employees may choose their representatives in such manner as may be prescribed. 35

(6) The Administrative Body once constituted will function for two financial years and shall be reconstituted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

4. (1) The Head of the concern may nominate another person on the Administrative Body to fill in a vacancy caused by death, removal, resignation, long absence or transfer of a representative of the employer, and may also recall a representative of the employer in the prescribed manner and nominate another representative in his place.

Filling Vacancies in the Administrative Body

(2) The employees may choose another representative on the Administrative Body to fill in a vacancy caused by death, removal, resignation or long absence of a representative of the employees, and may recall a representative of the employees and choose another representative in his place in such manner as may be prescribed.

5. (1) The Administrative Body shall meet at least once in every two months in the office of the concern and Head of the concern shall give at least a week's notice for holding the meeting.

Meetings and proceeding, of the Administrative Body

(2) The Head of the concern shall preside over the meetings of the Administrative Body, and in his absence, any other member chosen by the members present shall preside.

(3) All questions at any meeting of the Administrative Body shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and each member present shall have one vote. The person who presides over the meeting shall also vote. Any member may record a note of dissent. In case of equality of votes the matter shall be left undecided and the provisions of section 7 shall apply thereto. Any member may record his views in respect of that matter.

(4) The quorum to constitute a meeting of the Administrative Body shall be one-fourth of the total number of members of the Administrative Body.

(5) The Head of the concern shall provide clerical and secretarial assistance to the Administrative Body and cause the records and proceedings of the Board to be properly maintained. As soon as possible after a meeting, a copy of the proceedings shall be forwarded to each member for his reference.

(6) The Head of the concern shall afford all reasonable facilities including leave with pay and travelling allowance, to the representatives coming from distant places of employment to attend the meetings of the Administrative Body.

Powers and functions of the Administrative Body.

6. (1) The Administrative Body shall have the power to examine and decide all matters connected with the administration and management of the concern, excepting the constitution, authority and functions of any body superior to the Head of the concern.

(2) All decisions taken by the Administrative Body shall be binding on the concern and shall be deemed to be the decision of the authority competent to take such decisions under any law, bye-law, rule, order, regulation, notification, memorandum or articles of association.

(3) The matters referred to in sub-section (1) may relate to— 10

(a) all proposals for changing the conditions of service or employment of the employees;

(b) all proposals for punishment of employees;

(c) all proposals for closure or retrenchment;

(d) all matters of importance affecting the productive capacity 15 and financial stability of the concern;

(e) all proposals for introduction of new products or methods of production; and

(f) such other matters which the Head of the concern desires to place before it or of which any member has given previous notice 20

Matters left undecided by the Administrative Body

7. (1) Whenever any matter mentioned in the Schedule to this Act is left undecided under sub-section (3) of section 5, the matter shall be considered to be an industrial dispute and on the representation made by any member of the Administrative Body, the appropriate Government shall refer the dispute to the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court, as the case may be, for disposal under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

14 of 1947

(2) Any other matter left undecided under sub-section (3) of section 5 shall be placed by the Head of the concern before a body 30 superior to the Head of the concern together with all the views recorded in the Administrative Body in respect of the matter.

CHAPTER III

MISCELLANEOUS

Power Rules

8. (1) The Central Government or the appropriate State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazettes, make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament or House or Houses of the Legislature of the State, as the case may be, while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the House or both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or the House or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

9. The provisions of this Act shall be deemed to have been incorporated in the Agreements, Memoranda of Association, Articles of Association and other instruments governing a concern, and in case of any conflict between this Act and the provisions contained in the said instruments, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Incorporation of provisions of this Act in instruments of the concern.

SCHEDULE

[See Section 7]

1 Conditions of service of the employees including wages, dearness allowance, dress, housing and other amenities

2 Appointment, promotion, transfer, retrenchment, supersession or demotion, all kinds of leave and all kinds of punishment of the employees

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The State having set before itself the object of implementing the principles contained in articles 41, 42 and 43 of the Constitution, it has become necessary to assure employment and living wage to all the employees of the industrial and commercial undertakings. Such assurance cannot be secured unless the employees are associated with the management. Much misunderstanding and many industrial disputes will be avoided by such association. This will also make available to the management the advice and expert knowledge of the persons who do the effective work besides giving the employees a sense of ownership and belonging very much essential to improvement in production.

BILL No. 40 OF 1968

A Bill further to amend the Representation of the People Act, 1951.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Representation of the People (Amendment) Act, 1968. Short title.

Insertion of new section 86A.

Transfer by Supreme Court of election petition from one High Court to another or from one Judge of a High Court to another
Judge of the same High Court.

2. In the Representation of the People Act, 1951, after section 86, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

43 of 1951.

“86A. Whenever it appears to the Supreme Court, on an application made to it or suo-moto, that an order under this section is expedient for the ends of justice, it may direct transfer of any election petition pending in any High Court to any other High Court or where the petition is being tried by a single Judge of any High Court to another Judge of the same High Court:

Provided that an application for the transfer from one Judge or of the High Court to another Judge of the same High Court shall not be entertained unless an application in this behalf which has previously been made to the Chief Justice of that High Court has been dismissed by him.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There is no provision in the Representation of the People Act 1951 for the transfer of an election petition which is pending in a High Court to any other High Court, or from one Judge of the High Court to another Judge of the same High Court, or against the particular Judge, even though the Supreme Court may be convinced of the legitimacy of such grievance.

This Bill seeks to fill in this lacuna
